ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER, United States Magistrate Judge.

The operative complaint refers to a “John Doe” defendant who was a corrections officer working the late hours of the 3 p.m. – 11 p.m. tour in the Anna M. Kross Center on Rikers Island on August 21, 2020. On October 22, 2021, the Court issued an order requiring that “By November 22, 2021, Plaintiff shall file a letter setting forth, if any, physical or other identifying information that Plaintiff recalls about the unidentified John Doe defendant in order to aid the NYC Legal Department in identifying that defendant.” (See Dkt. 55.) No such letter has been filed as of this time. Accordingly, the Court will give Plaintiff a final chance to provide identifying information. By December 22, 2021, Plaintiff shall file a letter setting forth any physical or other identifying information that Plaintiff recalls about the unidentified John Doe defendant.

If Plaintiff fails to respond as ordered, the Court will recommend dismissal of the John Doe defendant from the case.

SO ORDERED.
